

EXHIBIT B

RT 418

1 MS. MATTHEWS: It is.

2 And we will also withdraw 2.70, and ask the Court for 2.71,
3 Admission Defined.

4 THE COURT: All right. 2.70, confession and admission
5 defined has been withdrawn.

6 The People are proposing 2.71, admission defined.

7 Does the defense have any objection?

8 MR. GAYLE: Yes, Your Honor. Mr. Grice objects. He didn't 9 make any admissions. His statements were that he acted in 0 self-defense. There's no admission here. So we object.

1 MS. MATTHEWS: He admitted to Maria Casteel that he threw
2 something on Ali and lit a match, set him on fire. He admitted
3 to Inspector Levin that he threw gasoline on Mr. Ali, Mr. Ward.
4 I mean, I could go on. I believe there are plenty of instances
5 of admissions by the defendant such, that this is an appropriate
6 instruction.

THE COURT: All right. I agree. I'm going to give this instruction.

All right. 2.80, expert testimony.

2.81, opinion testimony.

MR. GAYLE: Object to that. I don't believe there was any lay witness that was asked to give an opinion.

MS. MATTHEWS: I don't believe that would qualify Chris Murphy as an expert. And I can't remember. I don't think we also qualified Dr. Durlacher either. So we would certainly have the opinions of those two people. That would be appropriate to merit this instruction.

MR. GAYLE: My recollection is they were qualified.
